

jingle book

May 2013

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2015

<https://archive.org/details/jinglebookcrawli00unse>

When bad occupies good good gets angry & invents retaliation, which results in a) overthrow of occupation
b) decline of good into first medium, then minimal good, not
distinguishable from bad.
At that point animal-
admiration societies
spring up & try to re-
educate the practitioners of good & bad to the basics

①

the surviving & frolicking

2

the chirping & flocking

③

the crawling & progressing

(4)

The hopping & the hopping

5

the mountain & the valley

the brook & the meadow

the snow & the sun

the fog & the morning

the hunger & the thirst

the falling & the

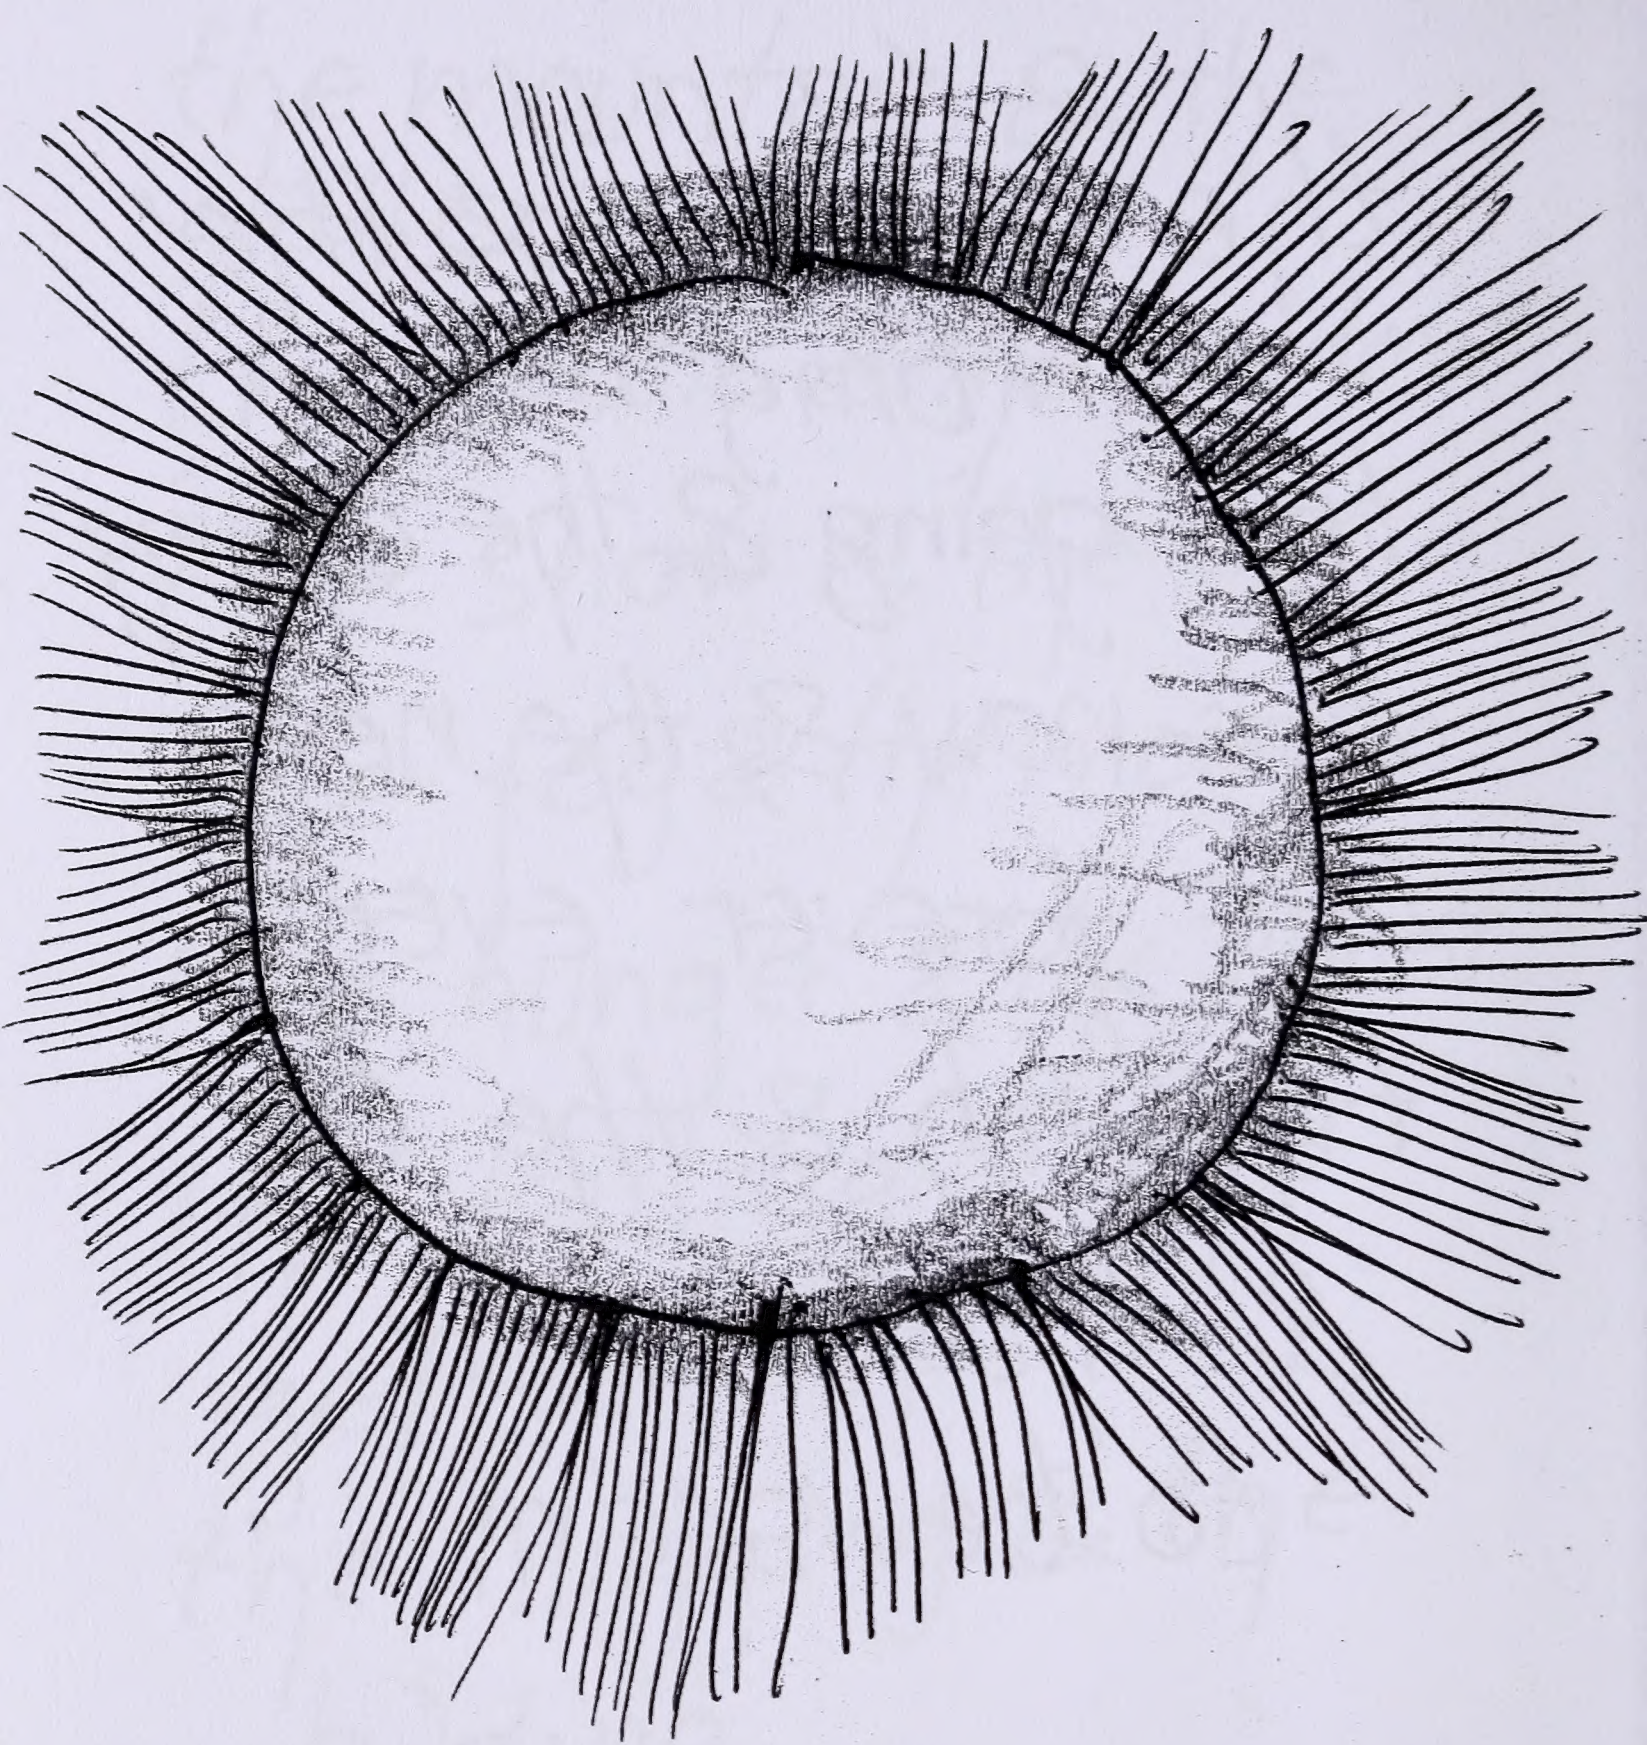

getting up

the hugging & the

hiding

(6)

the wading & the climbing
the going & the coming
the now & the never
the forever ever
the Ah & the Oh
& the nowhere
to be seen

8

ES/PM